

Each circle above represents a product or service offering in your business. Position each circle based on the stage in the life cycle of the product or service. e.g. An emerging product/service will be positioned at the beginning of the S-Curve. A product/service in its mature or decline phase is positioned after the peak of the S-Curve.